Busy, Busy, Busy

Suzy and Nick are friends and have known each other since third grade. While on winter break, they want to go to lunch together, go to the art museum, and go shopping for presents for their parents. They have to do all three things next week. Suzy will be busy with her parents all day Wednesday. The art museum is closed on weekends. The restaurant where they want to go for lunch doesn't have any tables available for lunch on Tuesday, Thursday, or on the weekends. Nick can only go on Tuesday, Friday, or Saturday. What day can Nick and Suzy do all of the things they want to do?
